

George Torres III is going into his 10th year as the Assistant Percussion Director at Winston Churchill High School in San Antonio, TX, and is a part of the visual staff at The Cavaliers Drum and Bugle Corps.

George is a product of TECA having competed with Medina Valley HS from 2008-2011 and is excited to give back to the circuit that gave him so much as a student!

George has been an educator for 13 years and has taught in the DFW, Houston, and San Antonio areas. George had the privilege of growing with the WGI World Class group Monarch Independent as a member, staff member, and administrator. He was a marching member of their inaugural year in 2015, a quad tech from 2016-2017, and then served as their Ensemble Director from 2018-2022. George has also had the honor of being on the visual staff for The Cavaliers for three years.

He has had incredible educators throughout his life that he is thankful for such as Dr. Brian Tinkel, Mike McIntosh, Joe Hobbs, Eric Ridenour, Michael Neubert, Taha Ahmed, Andy Filipiak, Levi Chavis, and Carlos Botello.

George resides in San Antonio, TX, with his wife Katie, son George Torres IV (Quatro), and adorable dogs Shyla & Delilah.
